Mokena Lions Pancake Day Set For April 6

The Mokena Lions Club is to have its 13th annual Pancake Day April 6 at Willowcrest School.

For the past several years the affair has been held in St. Mary Hall on Wolf Rd. St. Mary Hall has been razed so this year the Lions made arrangements to serve their pancakes in Willowcrest School.

Pancakes and sausage, with, of course, butter and syrup will be served, along with coffee or milk. Tickets are a dollar and may be obtained in advance or at the door. Serving will be from 6 a.m. to 2 p.m. so they should catch the late as well as the early risers.

Proceeds will be used by the Lions for their various public welfare projects but 50 per cent of the receipts, after expenses, will go to Trinity School for Retarded Children at Gougar and Francis roads.

Roy Wilhelm, a master-hand at preparing pancake batter and getting the finished products to the customers, is in charge of arrangements.

New Firm Will Make Wheels

A new business has been established in Frankfort at 21 Ash St. The company's name is The Mokena Buff Co., manufacturers of buffing wheels, which are used to polish anything in the stainless steel lines.

The owners are Mrs. James Surovick and Wilbur Schalk, both Mokena residents. The building they occupy was formerly a bakery and business will begin as soon as the ovens and other machinery can be removed and their machinery is set up.

School For Election Judges

Clara Hartley Woodard, county clerk of Will County is scheduling a training meeting for the election judges in Frankfort, New Lenox and Green Garden townships.

This meeting will be held on Monday, April 1, at 7:00 p.m., at the Green Garden grade school, Center and Manhattan - Monee roads. Judges from Peotone, Manhattan, Will and Wilton townships also will meet there at the same time, a total of 115 election officials.

Election judges will be especially interested in the training this year, as the new IBM Votamatic vote recording system is being used for the first time in Will County.

This first session of the training course will be followed by a refresher session sometime during the month of May. Election judges attending both sessions, and passing a qualifying test, are to be paid $5 extra for their work on election day.

In using this new system the work of the election judges will be simplified after the polls close. It is important that each judge understand the new method of handling the voting, and Mrs. Woodard urges that each person who is to serve in this capacity be in attendance at both of these county clerk's training sessions.

Voters will punch out their choices with a stylus and the ballots will be run thru a centrally located computer after the polls close. This will hasten the returns.

Town Meetings Will Be Held April 2

The Frankfort and New Lenox town meetings will be held next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Frankfort meeting will be held at the Cooper-Hostert Garage, Front St., Mokena. Town Clerk Harold Cooper will call the meeting to order and after a moderator is chosen it will proceed with the business at hand.

In New Lenox Township, Town Clerk Frank Kluge will call the meeting to order in the Lions Den on Cedar Rd. Moderators are chosen at all town meetings.

George Tate, supervisor of Frankfort Township, and John E. Francis, supervisor of New Lenox Township, urge all citizens who can, in their respective townships, to attend the meetings.

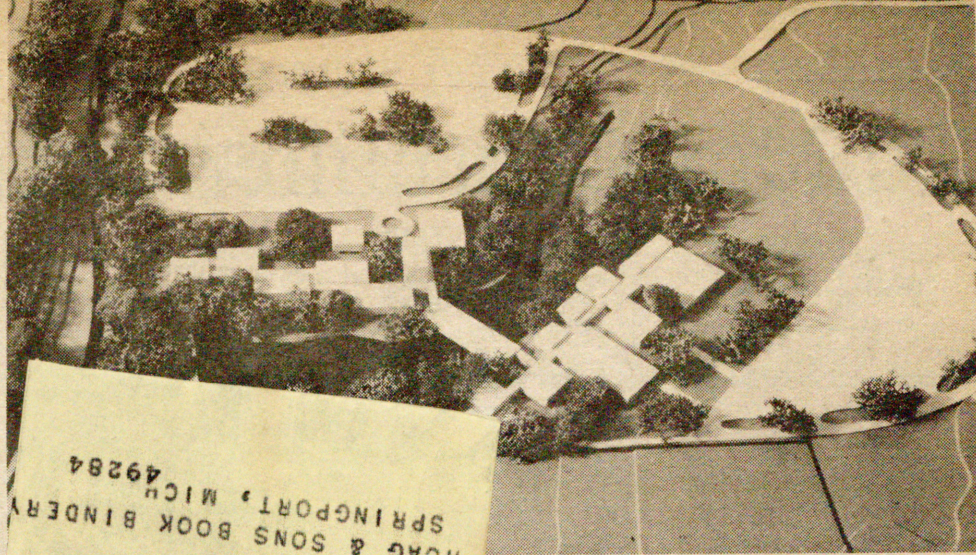

Town meetings are held to give township voters opportunity to consider and vote upon the township budget, tax levy and other proposals for the coming year.

"In no other governmental process does the citizenry have as many pure democratic privileges as they do in township government," the two supervisors said. "They should exercise these privileges by attending the meeting next Tuesday and everyone is cordially invited to do so."

On the south and east sides of the lake buildings from left to right include: building services, technical - vocational, agriculture and physical education divisions. All buildings to be connected with an enclosed walkway.

The bond issue of the college will be voted on March 30 and will entitle residents from all of Will County, most of Grundy, and portions of Kendall to make use of its facilities.

Will Vote Saturday On Jr. College Bond Issue

Those in charge of arrangements for the referendum point out that it is imperative that the bond issue pass. The state will pay three-fourths of the cost of construction. The district pays the remainder plus the cost of equipping and furnishing the buildings.

There will be three phases in the building program with the first finished by 1970. At this stage the board hopes to accommodate 1,500 students. The first phase includes a 300-foot long student center to span the 100-foot wide lake, plus units that include a building service center, vocational - agriculture, mathematics, science and business course divisions.

For the first phase the board plans to spend about $6,912,000 of which $5.2 - millions is to come from the state. But before the state will put up any money the college district must show it is ready to pay its share of the master plan. This is the reason why it is necessary to pass the $10.5-million bond issue now, it was explained.

Board members said that unless the program gets approval now and they can proceed with the plans and get bids prior to July 1, the $5.2-million from the state will be lost to the district.

In all the college will cost about $32 - million, it was said, with some $22-million coming from the state. The second phase of the program is to be completed in 1972. This will accommodate 2,500 students. When the final phase is done in 1974 the college can serve 6,000 students.

The local expenditure for the first phase, $2.4-million, will cost property owners in the three counties 2 cents per $100 equalized assessed valuation it is estimated. Thus, a persons with a house valued at $15,000 would pay $2 a year for the college building program; by 1974, when the full amount of the bonds has been issued the cost would be $5 a year, board members said. The valuation of the district is at the billion dollar mark, so it was believed operation of the college will not be a serious burden on individuals.

Area voters will cast their ballots in the Junior College bond and tax referendum this Saturday, March 30, in their respective grade school districts, except for a portion of those in New Lenox Dist. 122.

This part, which includes Cherry Hill, is Pct. 5 and the polling place is located at Culbertson School, Washington and Briggs Sts., Joliet. It is described, in part, as "... all that part of New Lenox School Dist. 122 lying south of the center line of the C.R.I. & P. Railway, north of Union School Dist. 81 and within the limits of Joliet Township High School Dist. 204..."

There are six other precincts in the area, all of which are a part of the Lincoln-Way High School District, No. 210.

Pct. 34 is that part of the district within the Frankfort Grade School District, No. 157-C. Polling place, Frankfort School, Oregon St.

Pct. 35 is that part of the district in the Mokena Grade School District, No. 159. Polling place, Carpenter Street School.

Pct. 36 is that part of the district in the Ann Rutledge Grade School District, No. 56-C. Polling place, Ann Rutledge School, 80th Av., Lincoln Estates.

Pct. 37 is that part of the district in New Lenox Grade School District, No. 122. Polling place, Haven School, Haven St. and Cedar Rd.

Pct. 38 is that part of the district in the Manhattan Grade School District, No. 114, Manhattan.

Pct. 39 is that part of the district in the Summit Hill School District, No. 161. Polling place, Arbury Hills School, Beechnut Drive.

The polls will be open 12 hours, from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

There will be two proposals on the ballot. One covers a $10.5-million bond issue to build and equip facilities for a campus. The other asks approval of an increase in the building fund tax rate from the present two cents to a new level of 5 cents per $100 of equalized assessed valuation.

The two cent tax, it is estimated, would produce $185,263; the proposed five cent rate would bring in a possible revenue of $463,158.

The proposed campus would be located in Troy Township, about five miles west of Joliet.

New Lenox Moves to Clarify Requirements For Building

From now on, persons who seek building permits at New Lenox will be furnished with copies of ordinances that may apply to their endeavors. This was decided at the meeting of the village board last week, when Carl Nuebeck, developer of Kimber Subdivision, near Oakview School, told the trustees that he was unaware of the requirements covering backfilling excavations in the streets.

The New Lenox ordinance requires that excavations for sewer and water mains be filled with sand to within two feet of the surface and from that point crushed rock must be used.

Nuebeck failed to do this, but a compromise was worked out. He will not surface the street with blacktop this year so if there is any settling it can be filled. Robert Hamilton, village engineer, is to inspect the street at the end of the year and if settling is still in evidence the street will be left uncovered next year.

Mayor Joseph Hartung and Village Clerk Marjorie Wajchert were authorized by the board to sign the plat for Kimber Subd. if Hamilton approves plans for corrected drainage as prepared by Nuebeck's engineer, George Reiter.

Contract for the installation of a chlorinator at the sewage treatment plant, as required by the state, was awarded to Sarris Construction Co., of Joliet, for $13,531. There were three other bids reported the previous meeting, all substantially higher.

Martin Flanagan, owner of Lo-Mar Apartments had asked the board previously if he could use some street light fixtures that he owns to light up some of the area. Trustee Robert Wysock reported to the board that Commonwealth Edison does not permit installation of foreign light fixtures on its poles.

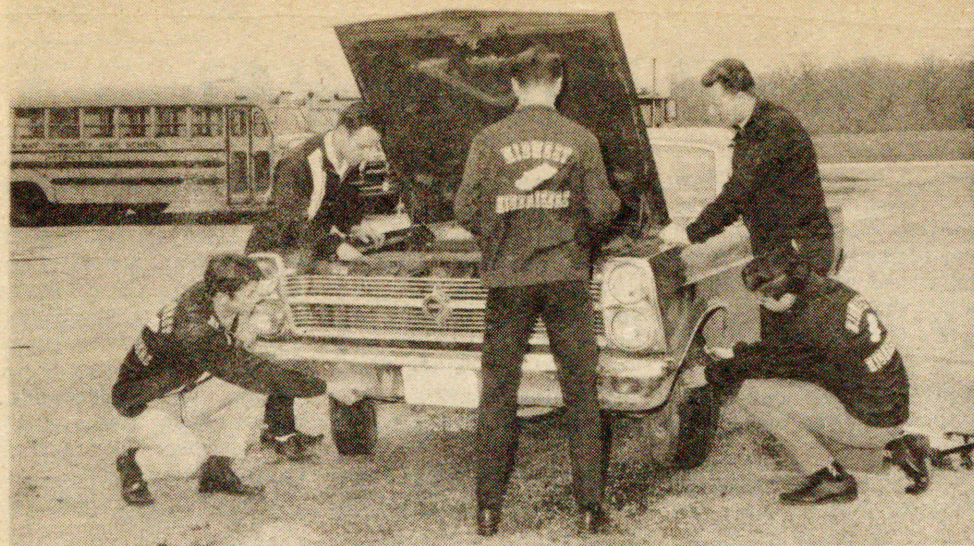

An ordinance governing the erection of signs on property unrelated to the subject advertised was adopted by the village.

An ordinance requiring a permit for parades was also adopted. A request to hold a parade must be filed not less than seven nor more than 30 days previous, stating the purpose and the number of persons taking part, the persons, organization or corporation sponsoring the parade, and the line of march. The permit fee is $5.

The board authorized Police Chief Joseph Wajchert to attend the National Symposium on Law Enforcement, Science and Technology, April 16, 17, 18, at the Conrad Hilton Hotel, Chicago.

O.V. Rowe, 239 Ash St., was appointed village building inspector. Rowe has a BCS degree, and is retired after 38 years in the postal service, 22 of which covered a position as special inspector engaged in audits, building inspections, leasing of quarters, and criminal investigations.

MIDWEST HIGH RISERS, students in the Lincoln-Way High School auto shop, in conjunction with New Lenox police, will conduct a safety check on cars this Saturday, March 30, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at U.S. 30 and Cedar Rd. The check includes inspection of lights, turn signals, windshield wipers, glass, mirrors, steering, horn, seat belts, exhaust system, tires and brakes. There is no charge. If a car fails to pass inspection, the driver will be advised to have the necessary work done. Upon completion of the inspection drivers will receive courtesy cards from the National Hot Rod Association. The picture shows a crew of students checking points on a car. The man without the jacket directing the work is Mel Oard, a member of the faculty. There's no law -- yet -- requiring a safety check but the students believe a driver will feel safer in a car he knows to be safe.

Annexing Extends Borders

The Mokena Village Board at its regular meeting continued with a strip annexation policy recently begun.

The board has annexed Townline Rd., which separates Mokena and New Lenox townships from Francis Rd. to 183d St.

Then it went back to U.S. 45 where it has strip annexed previously and took in a small stretch -- about a quarter of a mile -- between LaPorte and St. Francis roads. Until the Mokena board took action this piece of road was not annexed to any municipality. Several weeks ago Frankfort strip annexed U.S. 45 north to St. Francis Rd. Then Mokena came along and strip annexed U.S. 45 between 183d St. and La Porte Rd. This left the bit of road between LaPorte and St. Francis an orphan.

Many of the municipalities are now busy with annexation of highways leading out from their boundaries. They explain they are doing this so they will have some control over the use to which the land on either side is put. It would also enable them to take in a tract that the owners would like to have annexed.

How good this strip annexation is is a question on which attorneys are not agreed. Chapman and Cutler, a Chicago law firm accepted as the authority on bonds issued by governing bodies, it said to be urging that the legislature pass a law permitting the annexation of an airport to a city thru strip annexing. That is the way O'Hare Field was taken into Chicago and that is the way any airport built in this area would be taken into Chicago. Chapman and Cutler apparently want them to make it legal, it was pointed out.

The Mokena board also annexed the north half of 195th St. between Wolf Rd. and 115th Av. and has designated this thoroughfare as a one-way street for west bound traffic on Sundays between the hours of 6 a.m. and 2 p.m.

The action was taken at the request of St. Mary Church, which is at 195th and 115th. Several years ago the village annexed the south half of the road so the church and its school could be connected with the Mokena sewer and water systems.

The board also announced that annual administration of rabies shots for dogs owned by Mokena residents is arranged for April 20 between 2 and 5 p.m. The shots will be given by Dr. Thomas Gunhouse, at the village hall on Front St.

Invite Public To L-W Vocal Concert

The Sophomore Girls and the Freshmen Mixed choruses at Lincoln - Way High School will present a concert in the school auditorium at 8 p.m. April 5.

The Sophomore Girls will sing compositions of Bach, Handel and Brahms on their first set and finish with "Camelot," "As Long As He Needs Me," and "The Impossible Dream."

The Freshmen Chorus will sing the patriotic songs, "America, Our Heritage," and "The New Frontier." They also will sing "Bah De Bah Doom," written by Gerry Myrow, of Park Forest. "Fiddler on the Roof" medley will complete the freshmen's part of the program.

Tom Gilbert, of the Mixed Chorus, will be the soloist and ensemblers from the two choruses will also sing.

Tickets may be had from any member of the choruses and at the door the night of the concert.

Start Fund For Stricken Police Chief At Mokena

Mokena Police Chief Roy Newton, is a patient in the intensive care section of Silver Cross hospital.

According to members of his family, tests show that he is suffering from a dilated blood vessel in the brain. He is conscious some of the time. A specialist is in attendance. It is possible that he will undergo surgery this week. It may be today.

Chief Newton was stricken last week while off duty. He complained of a severe headache. A short time later he became unconscious and was rushed to the hospital.

Since he was not on duty at the time he was stricken, it was explained, the chief is not covered by Workmen's Compensation. He does have an accumulation of 60 days sick leave.

However, it was pointed out, an illness of this nature can be quite expensive. For this reason the Mokena Chamber of Commerce is the move and many have already indicated their desire to help.

Various organizations also will be invited to help make the undertaking a success. Checks may be made payable to the Roy Newton Fund.

Tuttle said Monday afternoon that already a number of contributions had been made.

"Roy Newton has given help to many people when they needed it," Tuttle said, "and we hope that many people help him."

STAFF SGT. Paul C. Chamberlain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Chamberlain, 558 Birchwood Rd., Frankfort, left, has been presented with the US Air Force Commendation Medal at Griffiss AFB, New York, by Col. William Looney, a wing vice commander.

2 Run For Frankfort Grade School Board

The two members of the Frankfort Grade School board whose terms expire this spring, Kenneth Oetter and Dale Kratzenberg, have filed their nominating petitions for re-election.

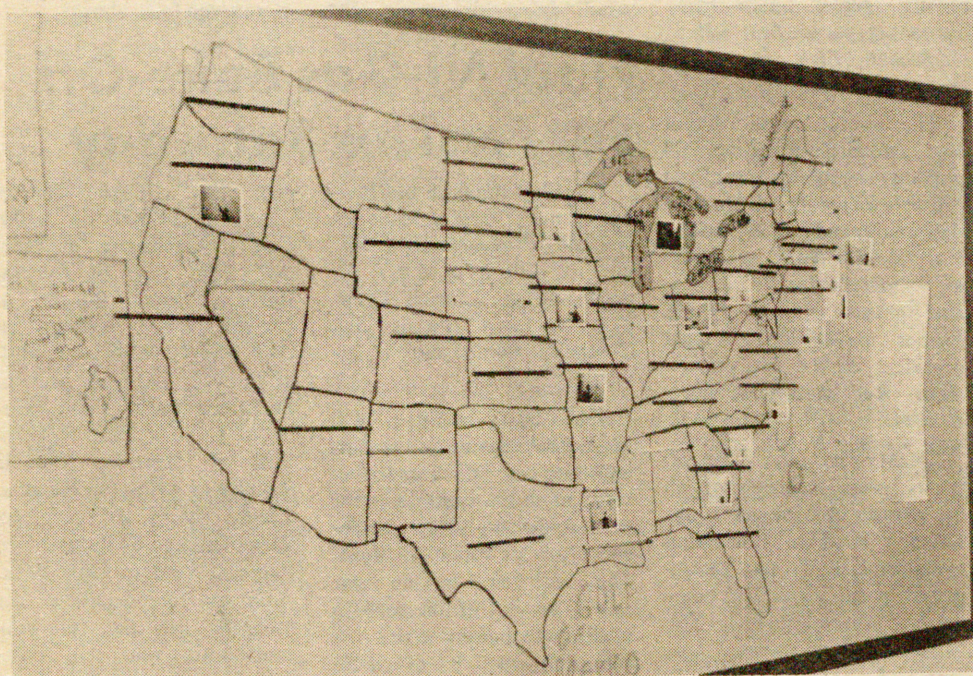

Last Friday, March 22, was the last day for filing such petitions as far as the Frankfort district, No. 157-C, is concerned so Oetter and Kratzenberg are the only candidates entered.

Oetter will be running for this third term, Kratzenberg for his second.

Absentee ballots may be picked up at the school office, Hickory and Oregon Sts., after April 3. April 8 is the last day to apply by mail for absentee ballots and April 10 is the last day for applying in person.

The election will be held Saturday, April 13, with Frankfort School, Oregon and Hickory Sts. serving as the polling place. The polls will be open from 12 noon to 7 p.m.

DON'T CONFUSE pencils with state boundaries or vice versa. Rick McCarthy, a teacher at Arbury Hills is making use of the school's pencil vending machine to acquaint pupils with the location of states and pertinent facts about them. The pencils sold at the school carry state names. The first pupil to get a pencil with a state name not already on the map gets to put it in place. His picture is taken and also placed on the map. It is costing McCarthy some money but he says it's worth it. He buys the film to take the pictures and also pays a dime for each of the pencils -- a clear 100 per cent profit for the original purchaser, who put a nickel in the pencil machine. Chief Reviews Work Of Mokena Fire Dept.

The annual report of the Mokena Community Volunteer Fire Department reviewing its activities of 1967 has been filed by Fire Chief Robert G. Rust.

The report brings to a close the department's 50th year of service to the community. High lights of the year was the dinner at St. Mary School gymnasium in observance of the department's golden anniversary and a big parade last fall to emphasize Fire Prevention Week.

The anniversary dinner was attended by some 200 persons, including past and present members of the department and their wives. Fire chiefs from neighboring communities were special guests. James Marti, former mayor and a past president of the fire department, was master of ceremonies.

Twenty-two fire departments were represented in the parade at Mokena in observance of Fire Prevention Week and 18 of them participated in the water ball competition that followed. The Mokena departments two teams finished one-two in this event. The department also took part in various parades last summer and in one of them was awarded a trophy as the best dressed unit participating.

Thirty-one men put in 1,124 hours in regular training and 27 men were credited with 116 hours of special training. The department put in 400 hours at regular meetings last year; 21 men put in 93 nights, a total of 297 hours, on watch duty at school activities. Total man hours spent by firemen, including those in answering alarms, was well over 4,000 hours. Average men per alarm for the year was 10.1; total miles driven in the year, 2,190.

Total number of alarms last year was 97, which was 1.5% down from 1966. Total property loss in 1967 was $24,450.

The report shows 21 house fires; 16 grass fires, seven auto fires, five auto accidents covered, 22 inhalator calls, six assists to neighboring departments and 13 miscellaneous calls. There were seven false alarms.

Arbury Hills

Local Schools Enter Wrestling Tournament

MRS. EDWARD HOVI
Telephone: 479-5740

Both of the two local schools, Arbury Hills and St. Mary's of Mokena, were entered in the Lincoln-Way grammar school wrestling tournament last week.

The final team ranking for the five entrants is as follows: 1) New Lenox, 2) Mokena, 3) St. Raymond's of Joliet, 4) Arbury Hills, and 5) St. Mary's of Mokena.

Arbury Hills had several placements among their boys: Marvin Hanes placed third in the 79 pound class. Don Majewski placed third in the 103 pound class; Jim Jensen placed fourth in the 112 pound class; Steve Peterson placed third in the 135 pound class; Stan Pasky placed second in the 129 pound class; Steve Smith placed 5th and Jim Rose placed 5th also.

In the consolation round Russel Been placed first in the 87 pound class and Kevin Smith placed second in the 79 pound class.

This is an amazing show for the school, since wrestling is a new sport to the boys having only limited competition before the tournament.

Two gold stars go to Mrs. Jensen and Mrs. Lindeman for providing transportation to the sporting events this year, and a gold star also to the St. Mary fans who supplemented the poor showing of Arbury Hills fans. These fans from St. Mary's cheered Arbury Hills kids whenever it did not conflict with their own school.

St. Mary's also did their school well in their first attempt at competition in wrestling. Four of the team placed in the first four: Pat Nelson took at first place in the 129 pound class; Russell Raiser placed second in the 103 pound class; Scott Sunderguard placed fourth in the 70 pound class and Al Sorenson placed fourth in the 79 pound class. Good show!

The Arbury Hills School is also competing in this week end's wrestling tournament for the South West Conference. The tournament is being held on Friday and Saturday evening, March 29 and 30. Good luck, boys!

The spelling contest held this Tuesday in New Lenox saw Arbury Hills School enter Debbie Moser from 6th grade as the contestant and Al Behnke as the alternate from 7th grade.

St. Mary's School had Anna Marie White from 8th grade and John Cumbee from 6th grade entered and Jean Schubert 7th grade and Bill Roach in 8th grade were the alternates. The results will be given next week.

There will be registration for those children entering kindergarten and new first grade pupils who have not attended kindergarten. It will be held at the school on Tuesday morning, April 23 at 9:30 a.m. You may bring your child so that he may get a glimpse of school for next year. At this time, Mr. Avila will explain the procedure for registration and the necessity for obtaining a completed medical and dental record prior to starting school. This is a state law which cannot be ignored.

With the admission of several new students in the area the enrollment in the school is now 450. Quite a change in seven years from the one room country school.

There was a meeting of the Lincoln-Way area superintendents and the special education board and Mr. Mackay the area school psychologist. There was discussed the growth of the area and the influence it would have on the special education needs of the district; and the availability of classroom space to house the needs of the children.

With the advent of the warmer days there is a greater need for stricter discipline in the school. It is very tempting for the youngsters to develop spring fever, but, unfortunately, it must be saved for outside of school hours. Discipline will be maintained.

A reminder to all voters of the district. There is an election for the newly established junior college district on April 13, a Saturday, from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m. You will be voting on a building fund issue. If it is not favorably voted, there is a danger of having the building delayed for some time due to the distribution of government funds to schools with the monies already voted upon in the district.

The honor roll for Arbury Hills school for the previous marking period are: 8th; high honors Joe Mangin. For honors: Jim Jensen, Jeff Lkein, Connie Rose, Gaye Terracina, Kathy Thorne and Judy Wenk.

In 7th grade: high honors Al Behnke, Ed Heise, Susan Kilgore, Lisa Monson, Steve Peterson, Steve Smith and Blake Tekotte. For honors: Faye Langland, Michelle Nyder, Georgette Norris, Carol Polfer, and Cheryl Thorne.

In 6th grade: high honors Mike Ayers, Michael Bunt, Robin Broekstra, Nancy Dickerson, Patty Lindeman, Jim Rose, Kevin Smith and David Sumner. For honors: Joleen Allred, Mark Brown, Denise Chancellor, Dorothy Coday, Mark Donovan, Jim Froehlich, Curt Hayden, Lori Lachowicz, Robin Lawson, Glen Lewellen, Robert Maschmeyer, Dennis Neumayer, Cathy Tanis and Laura Veltman.

Two of the classes at St. Mary's school had a "field trip" to end all field trips last week. Mrs. Kruzich's third grade and Mrs. Barenz' second grade had a day at the circus in Chicago. Much more exciting than a museum, I'd say. Maybe not as educational, but surely more fun.

The Cadette Girl Scout Troop went to the annual Flower Show in Chicago at the Amphitheatre. The girls spent an enjoyable day out among the array of flowers.

Paint On Permanent Floor Over The Old

You can now have a new floor by simply painting one on -- right over almost any surface. This new concept in flooring systems -- Flecto Seamless -- is a colorful combination of random-shaped flakes that you sprinkle between layers of clear plastic, which paints on easily with roller or brush. This results in a finished floor that is as beautiful as it is durable. And maintenance is cut in half! No waxing, no buffing, the easiest floor to clean imaginable!

With Flecto Seamless, anyone can do the average kitchen floor in a total of four working hours. And it isn't necessary to close down the working area. Flecto Seamless can be used on kitchens, bathrooms, hallways, patios, terraces and table tops. It can be applied over almost any surface inside or outside, including linoleum, wood, concrete and resilient tile. And it will not yellow, even outdoors.

In addition to easy application, Flecto Seamless is mistakeproof. The Color Flakes are pre-mixed to insure a consistent pattern, and the floor can be touched-up at any stage -- even after the final finishing coat. And because it paints on right over old surfaces, there are no expensive installation costs.

Flecto Seamless is available in ten decorative color combinations and is economical in price: only $16.30 for the average bathroom (25 sq. ft.), and $28.80 for the average kitchen (50 sq. ft.).

See Factory Experts demonstrate Flecto Seamless all day Saturday, March 30 at Bergmans', 174th & Oak Park Avenue, across from the Rock Island Depot in Tinley Park.

L-W Group Gets Tips On Horticulture

A group of Lincoln-Way High School students studying ornamental horticulture has visited Danville Junior College to become familiar with the college's nationally-known ornamental horticulture program.

The students attending were Roxann Burket, Bruce McBurney, Dorothy Immorino, Bob Randolph, Bob Osmus, Dick Morlan, Cathy Scherer, and Ted Smith. They were accompanied by agricultural occupations instructor, Earl B. Russell.

Areas of instruction in ornamental horticulture observed by the students visiting Danville Junior College were floral design, nursery management, greenhouse management, arboriculture, landscape design, and turf management.

James Nickell, Chairman of the Agriculture Department at Danville Junior College, pointed out to the group that eleven job openings are available for each graduate of the college's two-year ornamental horticulture program.

Presently at Lincoln-Way High School, thirty-one students are taking ornamental horticulture courses.

Q And A On Draft

Q.: We have only one son. Can he qualify for the Sole Surviving Son IV-A classification?

A.: The Selective Service Law provides he must be the sole surviving son of a family of which the father or one or more sons or daughters were killed in action or died in line of duty while serving in the Armed Forces of the United States, or subsequently died as a result of injuries received or disease incurred during such service.

Q.: Must a registrant return to his own local board for his Armed Forces physical examination or induction?

A.: No. He may transfer for physical examination or induction or both by requesting this action by the local board nearest him.

Q.: Recently my wife and I were divorced. She has custody of our two children and has them with her. Can I still get a Class III-A deferment?

A.: Not as a father. To qualify for such classification, you must maintain a bona fide family relationship with the children in your home; however, it may be possible to be deferred in Class III-A by reason of extreme hardship to dependents.

Q.: Who establishes the mental, moral and physical standards for entry into the Armed Forces?

A.: Mental, moral and physical standards for acceptance are prescribed by the Secretary of Defense.

Q.: Who conducts the examinations to determine an individual's acceptability?

A.: Personnel under the jurisdiction of the Department of Defense.

Q.: What are the respective areas of responsibility in connection with induction of personnel into the Armed Forces of the United States?

Open Letter from the HIRSCHS'

Dear friends,

Question: How much should a funeral cost?

Answer: Never more than the family wishes to spend and can afford to spend.

Our establishment offers a wide range of plainly marked prices, which enables each family to select a funeral service well within its means - and this we definitely encourage.

Respectfully,

Carl Hirsch

Fish Of The Great Lakes

As you stand at the top of one of the tallest buildings in downtown Chicago and look north, west and south over the city that stretches to the horizon like a gigantic checkerboard, it is hard to imagine how this place must have looked when the first white man came. To the east, however, lies Lake Michigan -- just as it was a thousand years ago except for man-made changes along its shoreline. Because of this enduring character, it is natural to suppose that the fish populations of the Great Lakes have stayed about the same. This is far from the truth.

The Great Lakes form the largest body of fresh water in the world and, in addition to being vital for transportation, are our richest source of freshwater fishes for commerce and for recreation. Lake Michigan is the only lying entirely within the United States. With the control of fishing divided between the various states and Canadian provinces that border on these lakes, there have been bad management, drastic changes in the fish populations, and serious depletion of their yield. Inadequate protection, overfishing and unwise fishing, including destruction of too many small immature fish, have been greatly responsible. Fish diseases, bad pollution, and invasions of the lakes above Niagara Falls by the smelt, the alewife and the sea lamprey, have had far-reaching effects. Certain species, once abundant, like the Sturgeon, Cisco, and some of the seven species of Chubs, have become uncommon.

The total commercial catch in all of the lakes is about 100 million pounds per year. Our nation's share -- supplied by more than 5000 fishermen and 2000 boats -- makes up more than half of the total yield of the freshwater fishing industry in the United States. Further, virtually all of the choice high-priced varieties come from these lakes. These include Lake Trout, Whitefish, Lake Herring, Chubs, Blue Pike, Yellow or Wall-eyed Pike, Sauger, Yellow Perch and Catfish. Suckers, Bullheads, Carp, Burbot and White Bass are also caught for market. In addition, the Great Lakes furnish fine sport fishing to hundreds of thousands of anglers who get bigger average catches than in other inland waters.

The Great Lakes provide a wide variety of habitats for fish. In general, the shallow waters have the largest variety of species and yield the greatest catches. Thus Lake Erie, the shallowest, was the most productive and the home of over fifty kinds. Lake trout and chubs prefer the deeper water of other lakes which reach depths of 700 feet or more, but the in-shores waters and bays of such lakes yield the bulk of the catch.

Altho the white fish is called "the king of freshwater fishes", the lake trout is the most valuable. It has become a popular sport fish for "deep-sea" trollers and formerly yielded millions of net fishermen. In recent years, however, the spread of the parasitic sea lamprey almost wiped out this excellent fish in Lake Huron and Lake Michigan, and threatened it in Lake Superior. The whitefish has suffered serious overfishing and urgently needs wise management. Too many are caught before they are large enough to spawn. The herrings and chubs make up almost a quarter of the total annual catch of all fish but they, too, have been treated wastefully.

Most people are familiar with the smelt and its striking history since it was planted in Crystal Lake, Michigan, in 1906. It escaped into Lake Michigan, multiplied until 12 million pounds were taken in 1940, and then almost disappeared in 1942-43, due to an unknown epidemic disease. Now it is again increasing.

All that stinks is not smelt.

Will County Demos Plan Dinner May 14

Harmony will prevail as preparations are made for the annual spring dinner to be staged in honor of all Democratic candidates, Tuesday, May 14, at D'Amico's "214", Joliet.

Leo J. Meehan, chairman of the Will County Democratic Central Committee, said that the Democratic party will go into the 1968 campaign with complete unity and without factional dispute.

While the dinner will spotlight all of the candidates appearing on the Democratic ballot in June, Meehan said the dinner will also have a sesquicentennial theme in observance of Illinois's 150th birthday.

The county chairman said that Lt. Gov. Samuel Shapiro, Democratic candidate for governor, will head a list of state candidates expected to appear. A speaker of national prominence will give the keynote address, it was said.

Meehan, who is acting as general chairman for the dinner, said that various committees will be announced later. The Democratic Women's organization and the Will County Young Democrats will play a prominent part in the affair, the chairman said.

Tickets, which will be $10 per person, may be purchased from Meehan or from any Democratic precinct committeeman in Will County. Meehan said that because there are a limited number of reservations for the dinner, he urges persons to purchase tickets early.

"There is tremendous enthusiasm among the democratic rank and file as we approach the 1968 campaign," Meehan said.

"There is also unprecedented teamwork and great desire to win. The new-found harmony has been a real tonic for the Democratic party in Will County and we go into the campaign very optimistically."

It's Clean Up, Fix Up Paint Up Time Again

Now is the time -- not for all good men to go to the aid of the party -- but to help themselves and their castles, if one is to follow the old axiom that every man's home is his castle.

They can help themselves thru the exercise they can expend on the improvement of their property and improvement enhances the cash value of their holdings.

As may be seen from looking over the advertising columns in this issue this is that time of year when "Clean up . . . Paint up . . . Fix up" can be treated as one slogan or three.

In most communities in the area there is a lot of cleaning, painting and fixing to do, it was stressed and now is a good time to get such projects underway.

For the reluctant cleaner-painter-fixer there is still a chance that the weatherman may grant him a reprieve. Snow and rain and wind are not conducive to yard work or outdoor painting but that isn't a barrier to inside work, such as painting, repairing and housecleaning.

Now is also a good time to gather all the litter in one place and ready to be hauled out in front when the garbage haulers put on their general cleanup effort for those communities that make such arrangements. Such clean-up days -- coming soon -- give householders opportunity to get rid of huge accumulations of junk.

One of the best ways to maintain a good lawn is to maintain a good fertility level. And unless you have already applied fertilizer to your lawn this spring you can be fairly certain that nitrogen will not be at the best level to stimulate good healthy grass growth. Nitrogen is usually the most deficient grass nutrient since it is used by plants in very large amounts. It also washes from the soil or is otherwise very rapidly removed. It can be replaced in the soil through the application of any of a variety of fertilizers that contain nitrogen.

A complete fertilizer is one that contains all the major elements that a lawn needs in its diet. Nitrogen is needed in the large amount therefore 10-8-6, 10-8-4 and 20-10-5 are examples of analysis that give good results on lawns. The 10 and the 20 in the number combination represent the nitrogen percentage. Likewise the second and third numbers in the combination represent the phosphorus and the potassium respectively. This means that in a 10-6-4 fertilizer it would contain 100 pounds 10 pounds of nitrogen, 6 pounds of phosphorus and 4 pounds of potassium.

There are four types of nitrogen fertilizers: ammonium, nitrate, natural organic and synthetic organic materials.

The ammonium and nitrate fertilizers are inexpensive and fast acting. They dissolve quickly and need to be used at low rates to prevent burning and still maintain a satisfactory level of soil nitrogen. Frequent applications of small amounts of ammonium and nitrate materials will usually give pleasing results. Ammonium nitrate, a common fertilizer, contains both nitrate and ammonium nitrogen.

The organic fertilizers, such as activated sewage sludge and animal tankage, contain nitrogen in quite variable amounts, and may also contain phosphorus and potassium. Organic nitrogen is usually in a water-soluble form and will not usually cause burning when supplied in large amounts. The availability of this form of nitrogen is dependent upon weather conditions. In cold weather nitrogen may not be released in adequate amounts for good plant growth. Warm and humid conditions cause more nitrogen to become available causing the grass to be in a succulent condition at an inopportune time.

Synthetic organic nitrogen such as ureaform is a recent development of the fertilizer industry. The ureaforms have a more uniform release of nitrogen. Thus this material is rather long acting. In many areas two to three applications of ureaform per season will give satisfactory results. It is safe to use, and doesn't cause succulent growth. The expense of this material is one of its chief drawbacks. It is usually one of the materials in the higher grade lawn fertilizers.

There are many different recommendations for lawn fertility programs. The difference is based on how much you water a lawn. If the lawn is watered frequently it will make good use of the maximum amount of fertilizer. However, a common minimum recommendation is two pounds of actual nitrogen per 1,000 square feet in early spring and another two pounds in early fall. For the better grades of lawn such as Merion blue grass, two additional applications of one pound of actual nitrogen should be applied during the growing season. It must be remembered that this is actual nitrogen and not the rate for the material as it comes from the bag. For example a 20-10-5 fertilizer applied at the two pound of actual nitrogen rate would be ten pounds of the fertilizer.

The most important thing to remember about lawn care and fertilizer is that fertilizing is the best thing that you can do to upgrade a poor or average lawn. The earlier the fertilizer is applied the sooner that lawn can use it to repair itself.

New Regulations On Benefits Under The Soc. Security Act

It is now possible for the disabled widow, or disabled divorced wife of a worker to receive social security disability benefits beginning at age 50. This also applies to the disabled widower who was dependent upon his wife at the time of her death.

This is one of the important changes in the social security law.

If the widow is severely disabled and her husband had worked long enough under social security, she may be able to get monthly social security benefits as early as age 50. If a severely disabled widower 50 or older was receiving at least half of his support from his wife at the time she died, he may be eligible for benefits.

A widow may be considered disabled only if she has a physical or mental impairment that is severe enough ordinarily to prevent her from performing any gainful work and the impairment has lasted 12 months or more. In general she can be eligible for payments only if the disability started before her husband's death or within seven years after his death. However, if the widow did receive benefits because she had children under age 18 in her care, she could be eligible if she were disabled before these payments ended, or within seven years after they ended.

The amount the widow will get will depend on her husband's average yearly earnings. If the benefits start at age 50 and the average earnings of her husband were $3000, she would receive $57.60. If his average earnings were $5400, she would receive at age 50 $82.70, if she were 55, she would get $100.30. It is reduced by the months she is under age 62. If a widow started receiving them before she is 62, the reduced rate will be payable after age 62 as well.

Payments can start for the seventh full month of disability, but the first month the widow can receive payment under this new provision is for February, 1968, which is payable in March of 1968.

If you are a widow or widower who might be entitled to these social security payments, you should call at the Social Security Office at 225 North Chicago Street, Joliet. You should bring with you, the deceased spouse's social security card, your marriage certificate, proof of death and some proof of age such as your birth certificate or baptismal certificate.

Powell Issues New Booklet On "Rules Of The Road"

Secretary of State Paul Powell announces the issuance of a revised Rules of the Road booklet incorporating the many changes in the laws governing the operation of motor vehicles enacted by the 1967 session of the General Assembly.

The general format of the booklet remains the same as the 1967 issue, which was a completely new approach in terms of size, art work, organization and presentation, Mr. Powell said.

New highway signs are illustrated and explained, the motorcycle chapter has been extended and new safety material added and new art work has been added in some places.

The Illinois Rules of the Road is unique among state driver manuals in several respects, Secretary Powell said. These include a full chapter concerning the motor vehicle, giving necessary information concerning license plates, titles, required equipment and reciprocity; a chapter on the medical aspects of driving; a separate, well-illustrated chapter on motorcycles, covering registration, licenses, equipment and operating laws, and safety rules; a separate chapter on expressway driving, and illustration of highway signs and signals in the exact colors and lettering as they appear on streets and roads.

Among the principal changes in the law are the following:

All drivers must be re-examined at least once every nine years, effective January 1, 1969.

The minimum age to qualify for a driver license is raised to 18 years, except for those applicants 16 and 17 years old who have passed an approved driver education course, effective January 1, 1969.

Driver licenses will be classified as to the type of vehicle the individual is qualified to operate, and applicants for a motorcycle driver license will have to take a special examination on a motorcycle, effective Jan. 1, 1969, and renting motorcycles to anyone who does not hold the motorcycle license is prohibited, effective Jan. 1, 1968. Effective Jan. 1, 1968, motorcycle passengers must ride astride the to help absorb the added cost of the re-examination program required by the federal government.

Effective now, a driver may cross the no-passing stripe on the highway to complete a passing maneuver which was started prior to the beginning of a no-passing zone, but only when it is safe to do so.

Flashing, rotating and oscillating lights on the top of a police vehicle must be lighted whenever a police officer is in pursuit of a traffic law violator.

Studded tires may be used between Oct. 1 and May 1 of the following year.

Copies of the booklet may be obtained at Secretary of State's offices in Springfield and Chicago at Driver Licensing Stations throughout the state, or by writing to Paul Powell, Secretary of State, Capitol Building, Springfield, 62706.

Chain-Letter Bond Scheme Draws Blast

The U. S. Treasury is cautioning the public against any and all Savings Bonds "chain letter" schemes.

"U. S. Savings Bonds themselves are an absolutely safe investment, free from elements of risk because the principal and interest are fully guaranteed by our government", Arnold J. Rauen, state director of the U. S. Savings Bonds Division said today. "However, these schemes for acquiring savings bonds 'for nothing' are a risky gamble."

He said that "the post office department's experience with endless chain schemes over a period of many years is that most participants lose their entire investment. This outcome is inevitable because the supply of interested persons is soon exhausted. The greater the amount to be invested, the sooner the saturation point is reached."

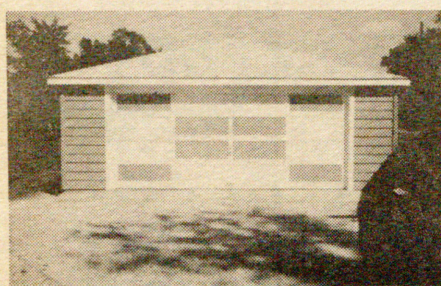

"Some organizers of 'chain letter' plans imply that the government and banks approve of the idea in order to increase bond sales", Mr. Rauen continued. "This is not true. The Treasury Department, through the Federal Reserve Bank, has instructed banks and other issuing agencies to reject applications for the purchase of savings bonds where the applicant states, or where the issuing agent has reason to believe, that the bonds will be used in the chain letter scheme."

He reported the Treasury's stand was taken some years ago when the chain letter device involving savings bonds was first brought to its attention. The scheme, then as now was felt to be contrary to the government's intended purpose in selling savings bonds to the public.

"Savings bonds are issued primarily for the purpose of enabling individuals and families to save safely and regularly for important long-range goals", Mr. Rauen said. "The Treasury wants to sell as many bonds to as many Americans as possible but always within the framework of thrift, and not as any 'get - rich - quick' scheme".

and bustled for reception. Her imported silk illusion veiling was worn shoulder length and held by side effect open petals of satin and chantilly lace with pearl and crystal trim.

She carried a cascade of amazon lilies and lilies of the valley.

Dressed identically with the matron of honor was Mrs. Sharon Stuckey, and Mrs. Joy Rechkemer, sister of the bride.

Flowers girls were Cheryl Teague and Dawn Ealine Barnes (cousins of the bride). The ring bearer was Brian Paben, brother of the groom.

Best man was Dan Marshall with Jim Koss and Wayne Rechkemer serving as ushers.

The bride's mother was dressed in a pink linen sheath with matching lace coat and matching pink accessories.

The groom's mother chose a turquoise sleeveless satin sheath with bone accessories. Each wore a white orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, a buffet supper was served in the church parlors with about 235 guests in attendance.

For their honeymoon, the couple spent a week at Stricklands Mountain Inn at Mt. Pocono, Penn.

The bride is a 1961 graduate of Lincoln-Way and attended Eastern Ill. University at Charleston. She is presently employed as a 5th grade teacher at Homer Twp. school.
